

Full-time Student
Board of Education
Wrightstown Community School District

In accordance with State Statute 121.004 (7), a student in the Wrightstown Community School District is considered to be a full-time student if they are:

- Enrolled in the District's four-year-old kindergarten program for the regular school hours of his/her assigned program.
- an elementary, middle or high school student scheduled in classes for the entire school day.
- scheduled into a partial day as prescribed by an Individualized Education Plan (IEP) or a 504 Plan.
- participating in an alternative education program with curriculum modifications approved by parent/guardian and school district officials.
- involved in an approved work-based learning experience program or approved work-study assignment such as, but not limited to, youth apprenticeships, internships and cooperative vocational education programs.
- a secondary level student who attends an institution of higher education for concurrent high school and college or vocational credit.
- enrolled in a Teen Age Parent Program and attends classes as scheduled for the program.
- receiving Homebound Instruction as approved by parent/guardian, a licensed physician and school district officials.
- a resident student attending public school in another school district under the full-time public school open enrollment law or a tuition waiver.

Adopted: May 19, 2004

Reviewed: October 17, 2012

Revised: October 18, 2017